

About Me

I'm Ashutosh Kumar, a first-year B.Tech student at BIT Mesra. Passionate about technology and creativity, I excel in web and Android development, UI/UX design, and coding with Java, Python, and Kotlin. I love exploring new ideas, building impactful projects, and pushing the boundaries of innovation.

Projects

2024

TECHNIKA WEBSITE

- Technika's website provided event registration, schedules, real-time updates, participant management, chatbot assistance for queries, and showcased event highlights, fostering seamless interaction and engagement for a successful tech event.

2024

SPOTIFY CLONE

- I created a Spotify Clone that streams music seamlessly, replicating Spotify's core functionalities. Users can search for songs, stream their favorites, and enjoy an intuitive music experience.

WEATHER FORECAST WEBSITE

- The Weather Clone provides real-time weather updates based on the user's location, offering details such as temperature, humidity, wind speed, and forecasts, ensuring accurate and timely weather information at your fingertips.
